D. C. Cancer Society Again Elects Pratt President of Board

Walter S. Pratt, Jr., today starts another year as president of the Board of Trustees of the District division of the American Cancer Society, following his re-election to the office last night at the group's fourth annual meeting.

The meeting in the District Medical Society auditorium was highlighted by presentation of a $20,000 grant to George Washington University for cancer work. The check was given by the national office of the American Cancer Society.

First layman to be elected president of the Board of Trustees of the local division when first chosen a year ago, Mr. Pratt has been active in the organization. He is president of the Equitable Co-operative Building Association. The new president also becomes chairman of the Executive Committee.

Others Elected.

Other officers named were Dr. Harry H. Kerr and Eliot Wadsworth, vice president; Dr. Calvin T. Klopp, secretary, and Frederick P. H. Siddons, treasurer.

Named to the Executive Committee were Edward F. Bartlett, Dr. Murray M. Copeland, Mrs. C. Ashmead Fuller, Dr. Kerr, Charles C. Kooner, Dr. Klopp, Alfred H. Lawson, Mr. Siddons and Mr. Wadsworth.

Mrs. James H. Gilman succeeded herself as field army commander, and with Dr. Klopp, was named a national delegate. The entire slate, including new and old members of the Board of Trustees, was reported to the group by Samuel H. Kauffmann, chairman of the Nominating Committee.

The $20,000 grant from the national office was presented by Leigh Ore, national representative of the society, and was received by Dr. Cloyd Heck Marvin, president of George Washington. The grant will be used to help maintain basic units of GW's cancer clinic in cytology, biochemistry and biology, and also will help defray costs of clinical care of research patients.

Marvin Cites Progress.

Dr. Marvin, in his acceptance speech, spoke of progress in the erection of Warwick Clinic and two other buildings for study of cells and for diagnosis and treatment of cancer.

"We are not unmindful of the great trust being put in our hands," he commented.

Mr. Kooner, who was general fund campaign chairman for 1949-50, received a certificate for outstanding services, presented by Mr. Pratt in behalf of the District division.

Reviewing four years of progress, Dr. Kerr pointed out that from November, 1946, to last August $554,280 was raised in the District for cancer research and diagnosis and treatment. Of this amount $425,874 was sent back to the District by the national society.

Another speaker, Joseph W. Leverenz, executive director of the District division, said the "battle is going to be harder," and emphasized that people should familiarize themselves with the seven danger signals of cancer: Any sore that does not heal, a lump or thickening, in the breast or elsewhere; unusual bleeding or discharge, any change in a wart or mole, persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing, persistent
